BIBLE READING PLAN

RSM-ers,

Perhaps one of the hardest, yet most-rewarding tasks to take on in life is to read the Bible - the whole thing. But, reading the Bible can be an intimidating chore. We know we're supposed to do it, but how do you start? Where do you start? What happens if you get bored.

Well we wanted to help you out, and so, here it is. A bible-reading plan just for you for the upcoming year. This schedule is a chronological plan for the events that take place in the Bible. So, when you get to King David, you'll be reading from Samuel, Kings and Chronicles, and also the psalms that he wrote during those times, as well.

But here's what we don't want. On day 5, you haven't read, so you find your plan, look up the reading, and then you read it as fast as you can, while taking none of it in. (We also apologize for not getting this to you earlier, so that you're not already behind by 7 days...that's on us). Or, by the time February rolls around, and you're off track by 10 days, and so you just give up. Our hope is that this plan helps you to grow in your understanding of God, and in your relationship with God.

So, if we could offer some advice, we would tell you to get a routine, and set aside time so that you could clearly focus, and do it every day. Before you start reading, maybe say a prayer asking God to make a passage stick out to you. Take notes if you want; underline, if you want. Do whatever you can to make sure you're taking it in. But don't get discouraged. And if you get off by a day or two, no worries. Just keep trucking. And hopefully, by the time that you finish, you'll have grown in your understanding and your relationship with God. Good luck! We'll be praying for you.
